February Board Meeting, Wednesday February 7 at 7:15 at West Concord

All CCC families are invited to attend Board Meetings, where CCC parents, staff and alumni parents, work together to support the financial health, strategic planning efforts, and program quality of CCC. In February the Personnel Committee will present the results of our annual Benefits and Salary Review. We will also hear about 2017-18 professional development opportunities offered to staff.

August Workshop: Pedagogical Documentation with Stephanie Cox-Suarez, Wheelock College and Nicole Gabby and David Small, Kaymbu

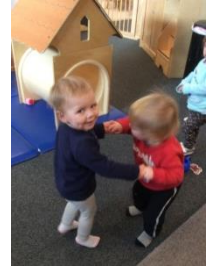

CCC has been awarded NAEYC Accreditation for the 32nd consecutive year. We are extremely proud of the work of our teachers and the leadership provided by all of our Program Directors.

CCC was commended by NAEYC in the following Program Standards that received a score of 100% or greater.

RELATIONSHIPS

NAEYC commends your program for promoting positive relationships among all children and adults to encourage each child's sense of individual worth and belonging as part of a community and to foster each child's ability to contribute as a responsible community member.

TEACHING

NAEYC commends your program for using developmentally, culturally and linguistically appropriate and effective teaching approaches that enhance each child's learning and development in the context of the program's curriculum goals.

ASSESSMENT OF CHILD PROGRESS

NAEYC commends your program for using ongoing, systematic, formal and informal assessment approaches to provide information on children's learning and development. These assessments occur within the context of reciprocal communications with families and with sensitivity to the cultural contexts in which children develop. Assessment results are used to benefit children by informing sound decisions about children, teaching, and program improvement.

HEALTH

NAEYC commends your program for promoting the nutrition and health of children and protecting children and staff from illness and injury.

TEACHERS

NAEYC commends your program for employing and supporting a teaching staff that has the educational qualifications, knowledge, and professional commitment necessary to promote children's learning and development and to support families' diverse needs and interests.

FAMILIES

NAEYC commends your program for the high level of compliance with this component. Recognizing the importance of a reciprocal relationship between families and programs is essential to ensure that programs are meeting the needs of the children and families that the program serves.

COMMUNITY RELATIONSHIPS

NAEYC commends your program for effectively establishing and maintaining reciprocal relationships with agencies and institutions that can support it in achieving its goals for the curriculum, health promotion, children's transitions, inclusion, and diversity.

LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

NAEYC commends your program for administering a program efficiently and effectively, ensuring that all involved persons, staff, children, and families are included. The way in which a program is administered will affect all the interactions within the program.

CC Board Meetings are open to all families. Please feel free to stop by and listen as we discuss the work of the Center.
